WHAT WE DO

Tactical Africa Ltd is a top risk, threat, vulnerability assessment, and mitigation security company majoring in various security vendor services like Travel security services, Event intelligence services, Ad hoc/proactive intelligence reports, Hotel security consulting, and executive protection fields. Security supplies and protection are our specialties.

At Tactical Africa Ltd, we use our worldwide network contacts of close and executive protection agents and security partners to give our analysts real-time, on-ground insight into local and national conditions that can make a critical difference for staff safety and businesses continuity.

We offer highly specialized Ad hoc proactive intelligence on-demand reports on trends and developments that could impact business continuity, staff security, and company reputation.

We also provide fresh intel from the ground when natural disasters, civil unrest, or terror disrupt business as usual.

Our Directors and Chief Operatives have high IED/EOD operators, Executive Protection, and Stakeholder's engagement credentials in the region.

Their hands-on experience is second to none, with jobs in the world's most risky places like Mogadishu, Kismayu, and Yemen, and the high seas feature in the list of areas we have deployed. Our resource base of Kenya's terrain, Hotspots, and temperament of the citizenry is unique. Add this to a solid military background and experience in community engagement. You get a combined resource pool that is hard to match in East Africa. Extensive international travel throughout Europe, Asia, and Africa, in general, has given us an understanding of the different cultural backgrounds of our various clients.

1. Field operations

Whether operating escorting clients as they visit projects or on static drilling site, mobile seismic operation our director and others are experienced field security advisors to provide our clients with appropriate and reliable security oversight to ensure projects are delivered per laid down specifications for safety, quality, time and according to budget estimates.

Tactical Africa company approach to providing security lays a firm foundation to dedicated points of contact throughout the project.

2. Executive Protection

Fact-based, the Tactical Africa Ltd Executive protection services are based on assessments of the risks, threats, vulnerabilities facing the principles, their organizations, and in some instances, their immediate families.

At Tactical Africa Ltd, we offer programs designed to mitigate these risks to an acceptable level.

We have re-written the commercial/ private sector approach by delivering the highest standards in close Executive Protection by solely using former government-trained operators.

With extensive international contacts, our management and Executive close protection teams have facilitated Travel intelligence assessments and secure transportation of personnel and assets across borders, sometimes through a hazardous terrain both on land and sea, with up to the minute intelligence reporting on every destination.

During the consultation process, you can expect a very personable and enthusiastic approach from our company as we assess your Risk, Threat, and vulnerability assessments.

We listen attentively to our client's requirements to provide effective bespoke security solutions that enhance business and leisure activity with peace of mind.

We are passionate about what we do and about forming long-lasting relationships with our clients.
